

I am Australian

- I believe in democracy and the rule of law.
- I buy Australian whenever I can.
- When I buy imported goods, I avoid goods made in China, or other repressive dictatorships.
- I salute the Heroes of Hong Kong.
- I don't support divisive influences in society.
- I ignore "shock jocks" and their hate speech.
- I don't believe that a person is defined by their race, culture or religion.
- I don't believe that religious freedom should include the right to vilify or offend others.
- I believe that women should enjoy respect, equal opportunity and equal pay.
- On climate change, I trust the science.
- I believe that Australia could be among the most successful nations, if we try.
- I believe that ethics should be placed above commercial or political considerations.
- I believe that in order to prosper, Australia must have a permanent Royal Commission into political corruption.
- I believe Australia should have a bill of human rights.
